

HEAVY WEIGHT COTTON VELVET IN BILBERRY

Code: 11136

Application: Upholstery, Curtains, Soft Furnishings

Composition: 100% Cotton

Woven from the finest cotton, Bilberry is a heavyweight velvet of exceptional depth and substance, combining softness with reassuring density. Its surface is supple yet structured, with a plush, generous pile that catches the light in subtle shifts of tone and shadow, creating a rich, tactile texture. Sitting between our classic Cotton Velvet and Mohair Velvet, it blends the comfort of cotton with a heavier weight and longer pile.

At 140 cm wide and approximately 700 g per square metre, Bilberry offers a generous, weighty drape, well suited to upholstery of the highest durability, as well as curtains and cushions where a more traditional velvet character is desired. The pure cotton pile and tightly woven cotton backing balance pliancy with lasting resilience, tested to withstand heavy use while developing a graceful, traditional patina.

Dyed in Bilberry, a deep, cool blue, the fabric reflects light with soft, nuanced warmth and tonal variation. Its depth and texture lend a sense of timeless elegance and quiet luxury - a velvet of enduring beauty and tactile sophistication.
